N. Brady, D. D. Chaplain in Ordinary, and N. Tate, Efq; Poet-Laureat to His Majesty.

LONDON:

Printed by E. JAMES, for the Company of Stationers. 1744.

And are to be Sold at Stationer's. Hall, near Ludgate, and by most Bookfellers.

An Alphabetical T A BLE.

May the 23d, 1698.

IlS Majefty baving Allowed and Permitted the Use of a New Version of the Pfalms of David, by Dr. Brady and Mr. Tate, in all Churches, Chapels and Congregations; I cannot do less than wish a good Success to this Royal Indulgence: For I find it a Work done with fo much Judgment and Ingenuity, that I am persuaded, it may take off that unhappy Objection, which has hitherto lain against the Singing Psalms; and dispose that part of Divine Service to much more Devotion. And I do beartily recommend the Use of this Vertion, to all my Brethren within my Diocefs.

TUNES and MEASURES.

ALL Pfalms of this Version in the Common Measure of Eights and Sixes; (that is, where the first and third Lines of the fingle Stanza confist of eight Syllables each, the second and sourth Lines of six Syllables each) may be sung to any of the most usual Tunes: viz. York-tune, Windsor-tune, St. David's, Litchfield, Canterbury, Martyrs, St. Anne's, St. Mary's, alias Hackney tune, Et. except Southwell.

As the Old 25 Pfalm, may be fung the New, 25, 31, 51, 67, 130, 142.

As the Old 143, the 37, 46, 50, 63,

76, 91, 110, 113, 120.

As the Old 148, the 136, 148.

As the Old 104, the 149.

The Pfalms in this Version of sour Lines in a single Stanza, and eight Syllables in each Line (if Psalms of Praise or Chearfulness) may properly be sung as the Old 100 Psalm, or to the Tune of the Old 125 Psalm second Metre.

The Penitential, or Mournful Ps. in the same Measure, may be sung as the Old 51 Psalm, which Tunes, with all the fore-mentioned, are printed in the Supplement to this New Version.

Pfalm Livery

OW bleft is he who ne'er confents by ill Advice to walk ; Nor stands in Sinners Ways, nor fite where Men prophanely talk. 2 But makes the perfect Law of God
his Business and Delight;
Devoutly reads therein by Day,
and meditates by Night.

3 Like some fair Tree which fed by Streams, with timely Fruit does bend,
He ftill shall stourish and Success
all his Designs attend.
Ungodly Men and their Attempts
no lasting Root shall find:
Untimely blasted and dispersed,
like Chaff before the Wind.

Their Guilt shall firike the Wicked dumb before the Judge's Face:
No formal tipporrite shall then amongst the Saints have Place.

For God approves the just Man's Ways,
to Happiness they tend;
But Sinners and the Paths they tread,
shall both in Ruin end.
